ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Jacklynn Walker (Walker) (Filing No. 68). Walker seeks until November 15, 2013, in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Walker has filed an affidavit wherein she consents to the motion and acknowledges she understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act (Filing No. 69). The motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Walker's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 68) is granted. The defendant is given until on or before November 15, 2013, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between October 18, 2013, and November 15, 2013, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

Dated this 18th day of October, 2013.
